

Name: _____

The Canterbury Tales: Power Point Character Evaluation

Self-Evaluation:

	Yes	No
Slide 1: Cover Slide Did you include a picture of your character? Did you indicate the title of your character's tale? Did you include an appropriate slogan to invite outsiders to travel with you? Did you proofread carefully for errors?
Slide 2: Information about Canterbury Did you include appropriate and sufficient details about Middle Ages Canterbury? Did you include appropriate pictures? Did you proofread carefully for errors?
Slide 3: Information About Chaucer Did you include appropriate and sufficient details about Chaucer? Did you include an image of Chaucer and The Canterbury Tales? Did you proofread carefully for errors?
Slide 4: Information about your Character Did you include characteristics based on the information in The Prologue? Did you include appropriate and sufficient reasons for their reasons they are on the pilgrimage? Did you list his/her travel companions (if any)? Did you include a physical description of your character? Did you include a picture of your character? Did you proofread carefully for errors?
Slide 5: Use of Satire and Parody (MOST IMPORTANT) Did you use an appropriate example of a modern-day character (can be a famous person or stereotype)? Did you include a picture you chose? Did you include a paragraph of at least 5 sentences of why you selected your modern-day character? Did you proofread carefully for errors?
Slide 6: Close it out with a Last-Minute Sales Pitch Did you give an appropriate example of advice from your character? Did this piece of advice include satire and parody that captures the attitude of your character? Did you include a final reason why one should travel with him/her to Canterbury?

Teacher Evaluation:

Slide 1: Cover Slide Included Picture of character Included title Appropriate slogan to invite outsiders to travel with you Spelling, grammar, punctuation	/5
Slide 2: Information about Canterbury Appropriate and sufficient details about Middle Ages Canterbury Inclusion of appropriate pictures Spelling, grammar, punctuation	/5
Slide 3: Information About Chaucer Appropriate and sufficient details about Chaucer Images of Chaucer and The Canterbury Tales Spelling, grammar, punctuation	/5
Slide 4: Information about your Character Included sufficient and appropriate characteristics based on the information in The Prologue Included appropriate and sufficient reasons for his/her reasons for the pilgrimage? Listed his/her travel companions (if any) Included an appropriate and sufficient physical description of your character Included a picture of your character Spelling, grammar, punctuation	/10
Slide 5: Use of Satire and Parody (MOST IMPORTANT) Appropriate example of a modern-day character (can be a famous person or stereotype) Included a picture of choice Included a paragraph of at least 5 sentences of why you selected your modern-day character? Spelling, grammar, punctuation	/20
Slide 6: Close it out with a Last-Minute Sales Pitch Gave an appropriate example of advice from your character Piece of advice included satire and parody that captured the attitude of your character Included a final reason why one should travel with him/her to Canterbury Spelling, grammar, punctuation	/5
Comments:	/50