Dear Neshaminy Volunteer:

RE: VOLUNTEER POLICY

The Administration and Staff of the Neshaminy School District recognize that as a volunteer you make a valuable contribution to our educational program. We appreciate your support and commitment as a volunteer.

While acknowledging the tremendous support that you offer to students and staff, the School District recognizes that need to take steps to ensure the safety of each Neshaminy student. If you are individually responsible for the welfare of one or more children or have direct contact with children, you will need the following clearances: Pennsylvania and Federal criminal history check and Pennsylvania Child Abuse history clearance. If you have continuously maintained residency in this State for the last ten years, you are excused from obtaining a Federal criminal history check if you complete the District's sworn volunteer affirmation statement.

Applications for these clearances are available in the Human Resources office and on our website – www.neshaminy.k12.pa.us, Departments, Human Resources, Potential Employee Information. You are required to submit to a tuberculosis examination if your volunteer work may involve ten or more hours per week in direct contact with children. The cost of the examination will be at your own expense.

Please note that our Volunteer Policy is in no way a reflection on any individual and is not meant to question anyone's integrity or dedication to our students.

We look forward to your continuing service as a volunteer. Your involvement enriches the lives of our students in many different ways. Attached is a copy of the Neshaminy Volunteer Policy for your reference, as well as the volunteer affirmation form which requires your signature. If you have any questions about being a volunteer, please contact me.

Sincerely,

(Building Principal)
